Xterra Half Marathon held at the Earth Conservancy Land in Mocanaqua, PA.
Saturday, June 15th at 10:00 a.m.

It was a beautiful morning for a challenging Xterra Trail run with temperature in the upper 60's and lots of sun. The course featured a climb of 900 feet over the first 3 miles with 5 "Kiss the Dirt" hills over single and double track trails. There were plenty of puddles from the recent rains that were a few inches to over a foot deep. The 13.1 mile course featured a variety of terrain from uphill to serious downhill, from rocks to sandy soil underneath a beautiful green canopy. The race was won by defending champion, Eric Sambolec from Ithaca, NY. in a time of 1:27:53 followed by Tony Korch of Nanticoke in 1:33:38. Defending women's champion, Jaclyn Shokey of Jim Thorpe, finished 14th overall in 1:49:24. Special thanks to Mocanaqua DPW for their assistance with this year's event. The final Xterra Trail Race will be held at Gouldsboro State Park on June 29th at 10:00 a.m.
