This Year's Greyt Hound Hustle is in Memory of:
Garak Rimsky

Garak, (Racing name Playboy Delight)

July 1, 2005 to January 27, 2017

Garak is the first greyhound we adopted, after Matt challenged Robin to teach him how to roll over and play dead with a 'bang' command. He learned that in ONE DAY. He was a smart, loving boy, and a mama's boy to the end. He won the 'shortest tail' contest at the Pocono Greyhound Adoption picnic 2 years running. Garak took his retirement very seriously - he would leap off the couch if Risa and Leeta (his greyhound sisters) started playing too much, reminding them with his barking that 'we greyhounds, we just chill now that we're retired.' He wasn't an easy boy all the time, but he was our best boy. There is a hole in our hearts, but the love we shared with him will forever comfort us.

Our hearts were forever changed by you, buddy. Rest well.

~~ Matt and Robin Rimsky
