1 MILE FIRECRACKER RACE
AGAINST CANCER

1 Mile RUN & WALK
707 NORTH SOUTH ROAD • SCRANTON, PA

September 27, 2020

The “1 Mile Firecracker Race” at 707 North South Road, September 27, 2020 is in memory of Paul “Hook” O’Malley, a local boxing trainer who succumbed to cancer on September 25, 1992.

“Hook” was a tough man with a generous nature and common bond with people from all walks of life. He was at ease in a press conference or guiding a troubled adolescent. He had a moral philosophy of what was right. He would say “Straighten up and fly right!”. We who believe in his philosophy and the hereafter know that he is soaring high above us with a watchful eye on all that he loves. This race will be a testament of the great love and devotion his family and friends have for his memory and worthy cause. Hook’s loss is endured knowing he lives on in our hearts and souls.
